CONSTITUTION FOR PGHEA

Who we are:

- The Prince George Home Educators' Association (PGHEA) is a non-denominational, non-profit, Christian group.
- It was created by home educating families to enhance, inspire, encourage, support, and aid all home educators in Prince George.

What we believe:

- We believe that the home environment is a viable alternative in education.
- We also believe it is our inalienable right as parents to choose this course of instruction for our children.

Leadership:

- All leadership in PGHEA must have committed their lives to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The President must also have a minimum of 3 years of home education experience.
- Leadership positions take the form of and/or are viewed as facilitators – serving the group as helpers, coaches, neighbours and guides rather than managers, deciders or supervisors.
- Facilitators are mentored into serving positions by those serving before them. They should feel that God has called/led them into that area of service.

* E-mail List Information:

Our e-mail list is used to help keep us in touch between monthly meetings. We pass on field trip and event announcements, great web links, and other important news. It's not a terribly busy list, so you needn't worry about your inbox filling up with e-mails! :) When you check the box on the front, our list administrator will automatically add your name to the list. You will then receive an invitation e-mail - simply follow the reply directions and you will be subscribed. If you ever need to unsubscribe, instructions are included with every e-mail sent for your convenience.

If you would like to know more about using e-mail lists in general, visit the Help Files section of our website (scroll to the yellow links) at www.pghea.com.
